

Rachel Howzell Hall ~ Fog and Fury

Started this book on 12/17/25. Finished on 12/30/25

First time reading author. Let's see how it plays out.

Story line was good. Characters well written. Not too many characters to remember. Chapters were fairly short.

A young football high school star has to move to a new town and isn't liked by the new team. He gets unalived and Alyson Rush, the new P.I. in town has to solve the case when the Haven police won't touch it. Secrets crawl out of the fog. Did the racists do it? Did one of his team mates do it? Who stole the dog?

Read it and find out.

I'm giving this book a 9/10 for keeping my interest and short chapters.
